

Changes to our food offering.

- We have a limited number of tables in the restaurant, so if you are staying with us please ensure you have booked your table ahead of your arrival to avoid disappointment
- Both our lunch and dinner menus have been slightly reduced, however still offering local seasonal produce with a number of dishes
- Unfortunately we do not have our afternoon tea menu on offer. However, we do have a selection fresh cakes and scones served throughout the day
- Sunday and Monday evenings we are closed to non-residents and lunch on a Monday is closed to non-residents
- Dinner bookings will now be available from 5.30pm with the last table available at 8pm, to fit in with the new COVID-19 10pm curfew
- If you are wishing to come and dine in our restaurant, we strongly advise you to telephone us to ensure either we are open or have availability for you.
