

Win a two-night country house hotel break

Two nights away at a country house hotel is the prize in our fantastic February competition.

The Barnsdale Lodge Hotel, near the shores of Rutland Water, is a pretty, privately owned, country house hotel which has been in Hon. Thomas Noel's family since 1760.

This former farmhouse is in the heart of Rutland, the smallest county in England. The friendly, efficiently-run hotel is the perfect place to relax and enjoy a few days away. The prize, for two, includes breakfast both mornings and dinner, with wine, both evenings.

Memorable meals at Barnsdale are cooked simply, using the best and freshest local ingredients.

Try Eggs Benedict made with eggs from the hotel's own hens, Rutland Water trout, roast breast of guinea fowl, or wild mushroom and thyme risotto. Or how about a sumptuous afternoon tea, a drink in the cosy bar or, when the weather warms up, head to the delightful hotel courtyard for an alfresco glass of champagne.

It is easy to relax at Barnsdale Lodge and leave feeling refreshed and cherished by the wonderful staff. Dogs are also very welcome!

Our lucky prize-winner, and their guest, will enjoy a two-night stay at Barnsdale Lodge Hotel, Rutland Water, for two people (sharing one room) and includes bed and breakfast, plus dinner for two, with a bottle of house wine, on both nights.

The prize must be taken during 2012, and not during the Christmas and New Year period. There is no cash alternative.
