

The Rigate Suite and The Fort Henry Suite

These two suites are both on the first floor at Barndale Lodge Hotel, adjacent to one another. These are smaller suites, but with full conference facilities. They inter-connect and can be used together, making them ideal for syndicated training and staff interview situations, as well as many other uses.

There are toilet facilities adjacent to the suites.

The Rigate Suite

The Rigate Suite is a superb medium sized meeting room which is well appointed, air conditioned and naturally lit. It has windows on two sides with views over Rutland Water and the neighbouring countryside. There is a facility for a private catering service. This suite is ideal for small receptions, displays and training sessions or conferences.
